GENERAL INTRODUCTION

What is IELTS?

IELTS is an English language test for study, migration or work. Over three million people take this test every year. IELTS is accepted by more than 11,000 employers, universities, schools and immigration bodies around the world.

IELTS Academic

The IELTS Academic test is suitable for those wanting to study in an English-speaking environment or university (higher education). You can also take IELTS Academic for professional registration purposes.

Hibiscus Academy offers IELTS Academic preparation course in private and group class mode.

IELTS General Training

The IELTS General Training test is suitable for those applying to study below degree level. This includes an English-speaking school or college. It can also be taken for work experience or other employment training.

IELTS General Training is also required for migration to Australia, Canada, New Zealand and the UK. The test features everyday English language skills that you will need in social and workplace environments.

Hibiscus Academy only offers private class for IELTS General Training preparation. Special request of group class can be made.

Which IELTS test type is right for me?

If you want to move to an English-speaking country to study, then you should take the IELTS Academic test.

For work or immigration, the IELTS General Training test is recommended.

Test format

There are two types of IELTS: Academic and General Training. All test takers take the same Listening and Speaking tests but different Reading and Writing tests. Make sure that you prepare for the correct test type.

The Listening, Reading and Writing sections of all IELTS tests are completed on the same day, with no breaks in between them.

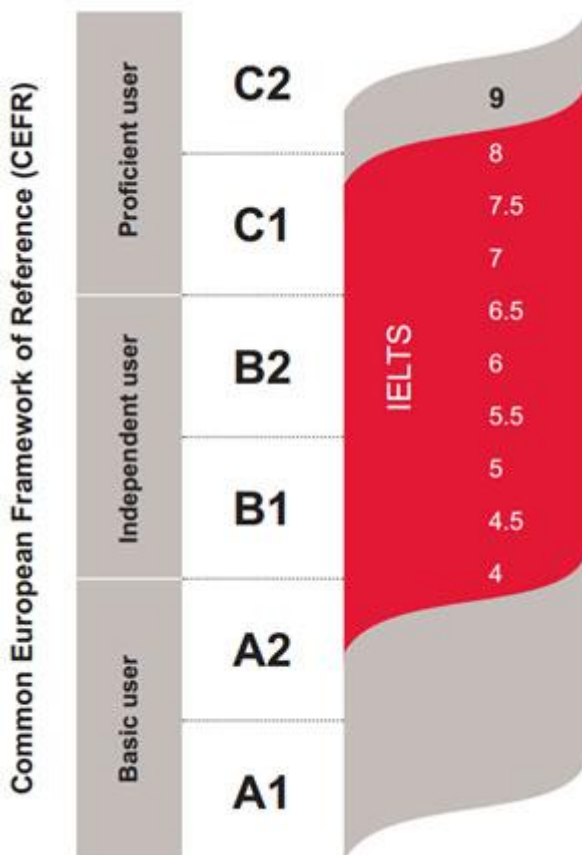

The Speaking section, however, can be completed up to a week before or after the other tests. The total test time is 2 hours and 45 minutes.

How much time do I need to study IELTS?

Firstly, it depends on your purpose of taking IELTS. If you are taking IELTS for the purpose of work and migration, English speaking countries such as the UK, New Zealand, Canada, and Australia may require you to have Band 6 to Band 6.5 (CEFR B2/Independent User). If it is for the purpose of studying in undergraduate courses in universities, most universities would require Band 7 – Band 7.5 (CEFR C1/Proficient User) and above.

Secondly, you have to know the level of your English. Hibiscus Academy provides you with English Placement Test in order for you to understand your proficiency level. Most high school graduates in Malaysia fall under the category of CEFR B2/Independent User and below. To achieve Band 7, this category of students typically needs 200-hour class time to prepare for the IELTS test.

Many people made mistakes by thinking that they could prepare for the IELTS in just one month and take the test hoping to get the score they want. This is only possible for students who have already had good command of English. Intermediate level students have to go through at least 200 hours of learning to study the grammar and vocabulary needed to advance to advanced level, on top of learning and familiarising themselves with the test format.
